

Providing Positive Career Guidance to Support Low-Skilled Adults

8th of November 2022 | 16:00 - 18:00

7-10 Adam St, London WC2N 6AA, United Kingdom

Canary Wharf Consulting invites you to the event “Providing Positive Career Guidance to Support Low-Skilled Adults”, that will be held on the 8th of November 2022, 16:00 - 18:00 (UK time), at the Adam House, 7-10 Adam St, London WC2N 6AA, United Kingdom.

The event is organised within the European project OVERCOME – Positive Career Guidance for Low-Skilled Adults. By developing quality educational material and a training platform, OVERCOME aims to enhance low-skilled/unemployed adults’ competencies and support their inclusion in the labour market, as well as build the skills of career counsellors and adult educators to better support low-skilled/unemployed adults.

Who is this event for?

-  Psychologists
-  Career Counsellors / Career Coaches
-  Adult Educators
-  Unemployed Youth
-  Low-Skilled Adults

Topics to be discussed:

-  The issue of long-term unemployability and its impact on mental health
-  The work done and the materials produced throughout the OVERCOME project
-  The online platform that was developed for career counsellors and low-skilled adults

The event is open to the public and will be hosted in English.

Registration to the event here

To attend the meeting online, please click here

Agenda

16:00-16:10	Welcome
16:10-16:20	Introduction to the OVERCOME project Epaminondas Koutavelis – Project Manager at Canary Wharf Consulting
16:20-16:30	A toolkit for low-skilled adults to develop their psychological capital Mary Christopoulou, Hellenic Association of Positive Psychology
16:30-16:50	Training course for coaches, adult educators, career counsellors & Training course for low-skilled adults on employability and psychological capital Filipa Flores – Project Manager at Mindshift
16:50-17:00	The OVERCOME online learning space with resources Panagiotis Loizou – Project Manager at CARDET
17:00-17:15	3 mistakes I've made as an entry level professional in my career and what I've found is game changer instead? Laura Kressmann - Leadership & Creative Confidence Coach at Aspirationelles AND Associate Director in the Office of the CTO at Mediacom
17:15-17:30	Upcycled craft, a way towards meaningful employment? Spyros Bofylatos - Tutor (research) Royal College of Art
17:30-17:45	Similar initiatives
17:45-18:00	Conclusions, Questions and Discussion

 For further information, please contact us at: koutavelis.e@canarywharf-consulting.com